

1

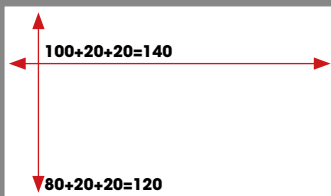

When measuring a dining table for a tablecloth, you should measure the length and width of the table surface.

2

Sit at the table and measure the distance between your legs and the table surface.

3

Add the distance between your legs and the table surface to all four sides of the table's measurements. The correct overhang should be roughly 20cm on all four sides.

4

This gives you your perfect tablecloth size.